Examiner's statement of reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

For claims 8 and 9, the prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest a circuit arrangement for receiving data arranged in a transmission frame comprising a first processing unit for readout of data from a current time slot offering current state parameters of the current time slot, a second processing unit with an allocation unit for administering a second memory unit in which the state parameters readout from a first memory unit given a time slot change are stored and a third processing unit for forming data words from the data deposited in the third memory unit.

For claim 10, the prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest a method for reception of data arranged in a transmission frame comprising reading out data from a current time slot and offering current state parameters of the current time slot, storing in a second memory unit the current state parameters read from a first memory given a time slot change, reading into a third memory the current state parameters and forming data words deposited in the third memory unit.

For claim 11, the prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest a method for transmission of data arranged in a transmission frame, comprising offering state parameters of a current time slot and reading data into the current time slot, temporarily storing parameters of a time slot following the current time slot in a first memory unit, storing in a second memory unit the state parameters stored in and read out from the first memory unit given a time slot change, , allocating and storing in the third memory unit data previously deposited and temporarily stored in the first memory unit.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
